

Unpacking the Standards Unit 3: Georgia during the Revolutionary War

At the end of the Unit: Students will be able to explain Georgia's role in the American Revolution. We will look at the causes of the Revolutionary War, how Georgia reacted to the causes, and how Georgians participated in the Revolutionary War. We will also examine the foundations of the new government that was created by examining the Articles of Confederation, the Bill of Rights, and the U.S. Constitution.

Standards:

H3 Analyze the role of Georgia in the American Revolutionary Era.

- a. Explain the causes of the American Revolution as they impacted Georgia; include the French and Indian War, Proclamation of 1763, and the Stamp Act.
- b. Interpret the three parts of the Declaration of Independence (preamble, grievances, and declaration) and identify the three Georgia signers of the document.
- c. Analyze the significance of the Loyalists and Patriots as a part of Georgia's role in the Revolutionary War; include the Battle of Kettle Creek and Siege of Savannah.
- d. Analyze the weaknesses of the Articles of Confederation and explain how those weaknesses led to the writing of a new federal Constitution.

E2a-Describe how profit is an incentive for entrepreneurs.

E2c- Evaluate the economic impact of various industries in Georgia including agricultural, entertainment, manufacturing, service, and technology.
